Elise Sutter is all in when it comes to campfires, delicious food, and hikes that don't require a compass! She's a wife, mom, HR director, and creative spirit who brings joy, curiosity, and a deep love for Jesus everywhere she goes. During the week, Elise supports theological schools with care and dedication. But at camp? That's where her soul sings. It's the place where faith deepens, friendships flourish, and campers discover just how wildly loved they are by God! She believes camp is a place where we grow in big and small ways—through silly songs, quiet prayers, muddy trails, and moments of worship that stick with us long after we leave. Elise can't wait to be part of Fall Fusion and hopes you'll join her for a weekend bursting with fun and the beautiful adventure of following Jesus. Here we grow!
